

Joey Korn's Miracle Blessing Process

For Personal Energy Clearing & Space Clearing

Version 042226

My Miracle Blessing Process is the most important blessing process that I share. Keep it handy. If you use this blessing exactly as described, you can accomplish much more in personal energy clearing and space clearing than you can imagine. You'll be helping yourself and likely many others, especially if you're directly or indirectly being affected by Interference Energy, which is quite common nowadays. You can use my Miracle Blessing Process anywhere. If there are energy problems wherever you are, and/or anywhere else you're energetically connected or imprinted, it will clear it all, with very few exceptions, and it will do much more than that. You can even lie down on the ground outside, and it will clear your home, family, and if there are energy problems, you'll simultaneously be clearing more other people.

Instructions

1. In most cases, you must lie down to go through this blessing process. You can lie on your bed or anywhere you want, as long as your head is near the edge of the bed. Whenever you're lying down, your head will always be in the energy field in your Human Energy Pattern that crosses the head of your bed, in your Bed Pattern, as pictured on the left, which will always be out of balance if you're being affected by Interference Energy.
2. The energy fields in the Bed Pattern are like energy walls that are a few inches thick. When you lie down in bed, your head will then be in that energy wall that crosses the head of your bed.
3. Think about what you're saying as you read the blessing. Remember it's all about Intent, not the words you're reading. Learn more by reading my MBP Maintenance Guide, which is the next file after this one on my Handouts page.

It is important to lie down and say this blessing. Begin by sitting up in bed, imagining that the energy wall passing through or intersecting the head of your bed is right behind you. Then, as you lie down, think of your head entering that wall, and it will be passing through your head.

Now, while thinking of that, begin the blessing:

Dear God (or however you address the Divine),
Please follow the energy field in my energy pattern that my head is in,
Back to the source or cause of its imbalance, which is Interference Energy,
And do whatever is appropriate with that energy,
that is causing this imbalance in my energy pattern,
To bring healing and balance to my complete being, as well as to all who are affected by that energy, here and elsewhere,
Physically..., Emotionally..., Mentally..., and Spiritually....
Please remove all people who are no longer appropriately connected here now, and to any place where Interference Energy was just removed.
Please also remove my energy pattern from any places I am inappropriately imprinted
Where Interference Energy was just removed.
Please bless all the earth energies, all the human-related energies,
And all the electrical fields radiating from electrical devices throughout this home,
To bring healing and balance to my complete being and to all who are connected here now.
Thank You. Amen. (or however you wish to close your blessings)
